TRILOGY LACROSSE LOOKS TO ADD NATIONAL SELECT TEAM DIRECTOR

EXECUTIVE STAFF TO EXPAND AS SELECT TEAM PROGRAM GROWS

New York, NY February 23, 2010 – Trilogy Lacrosse®, The Leader in Lacrosse Education, has announced a nationwide search to fill the position of National Select Team Director. Now in its sixth year, Trilogy Lacrosse conducts clinics, day camps and overnight camps in Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Georgia, Kentucky, Colorado, Florida, Texas and California. In 2009 the Select Team Program fielded successful teams at multiple age levels in Maryland, New Jersey and Texas.

“Our Select Team Program has been well received by players, parents, youth and high school organizations, local coaches and college programs,” said Ryan Boyle, Co Founder and COO, Trilogy Lacrosse. “Our Select Teams service a higher level customer base that exists within our core competency of boys’ lacrosse instruction. Overall I am pleased with our Select Teams but understand that in order to be successful, we will need to have one dedicated, talented and passionate leader spearhead this division nationwide. We are excited about adding this full-time position and the type of person that will join our Executive team in New York.”

The Trilogy Lacrosse Select Team Program has grown from three teams in its inaugural year to fifteen in 2010 and plans on expanding within existing territories and into new regions. Trilogy Lacrosse has already begun the search process for a National Select Team Director. If you are interested in obtaining more information about the position or interested in applying for the position please go to <http://www.trilogylacrosse.com/national-select-team-director> or send your cover letter and resume by March 28th, 2010 to rboyle@trilogylacrosse.com with the subject “National Select Team Director: Your Name.”
